

Dirt-eating pastime matching

Kṛṣṇa Eats Dirt and Reveals the Universe | 18 minutes

Story connection

Kṛṣṇa eats clay; friends tell Yaśodā; when she asks Him to open His mouth she sees the universe and stands amazed (Krishna Book / Kṛṣṇa eats dirt pastime).

Match each figure to why they came

- Match each left item to its right meaning.
- Talk about truthfulness and motherly care.

A. tasting clay

B. friends report

C. gentle question

D. open mouth request

E. universe vision

worlds appear within His mouth

Yaśodā wants to see inside

mother asks what happened

they tell Yaśodā with concern

friends notice Kṛṣṇa's play

Dirt-eating pastime matching

Kṛṣṇa Eats Dirt and Reveals the Universe | 18 minutes

Story connection

Kṛṣṇa eats clay; friends tell Yaśodā; when she asks Him to open His mouth she sees the universe and stands amazed (Krishna Book / Kṛṣṇa eats dirt pastime).

Match continued

F. amazed love

wonder increases her affection

Younger: Match with pictures and number cards carefully. Older: Explain how the mouth vision changed Yaśodā's understanding.

PARENT HELP: Remind children never to eat dirt or clay in real life.

Put the dirt-eating pastime in order

Kṛṣṇa Eats Dirt and Reveals the Universe | 18 minutes

Story connection

Kṛṣṇa eats clay; friends tell Yaśodā; when she asks Him to open His mouth she sees the universe and stands amazed (Krishna Book / Kṛṣṇa eats dirt pastime).

- Number the eight shuffled cards in story order.
- Draw one calm detail on each card.

Inside His mouth she beholds the entire universe.

Number + draw one detail

Kṛṣṇa plays outside and tastes a bit of clay.

Number + draw one detail

Ordinary village life continues with renewed affection.

Number + draw one detail

Yaśodā asks whether He really ate dirt.

Number + draw one detail

She asks Him to open His mouth so she can see.

Number + draw one detail

Cowherd friends hurry to tell Mother Yaśodā.

Number + draw one detail