

Story sequence cards

The Stealing of the Boys and Calves by Brahma | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of The Stealing of the Boys and Calves by Brahma.

- Number the cards in story order.
- Draw one source-faithful detail on each card.

Overwhelmed with awe and respect, Brahmā offered his humble prayers to Lord Kṛṣṇa and understood the greatness and loving kindness of the Lord.

Number + draw one detail

But as everyone enjoyed their meal, someone high above watched closely—it was Lord Brahmā, the great creator in the universe.

Number + draw one detail

To protect the cowherd boys and their families from sadness, and to teach Brahmā about His power, Kṛṣṇa expanded Himself into exact forms of all the missing calves and boys.

Number + draw one detail

Seeing that neither His friends nor the calves were anywhere to be found, He realized that mighty Brahmā was behind this illusion.

Number + draw one detail

The morning in Vṛndāvana shone bright as ever, the grass glistening with tiny drops of dew under the feet of the boys and their frolicking calves.

Number + draw one detail

With careful steps, Kṛṣṇa walked off among the trees, calling softly, “Come, my dear calves, where have you wandered?” But the calves were hidden by Brahmā’s spell and could not answer.

Number + draw one detail

Family kindness mission

The Stealing of the Boys and Calves by Brahma | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of The Stealing of the Boys and Calves by Brahma.

Family mission

- Choose one humble, prayerful action from the story and do it today.

Today's kindness from the story

We will: _____

Because the story taught us: _____

☐

Done together