

Story sequence cards

Prayers Offered by Lord Brahma to Lord Krishna | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of Prayers Offered by Lord Brahma to Lord Krishna.

- Number the cards in story order.
- Draw one source-faithful detail on each card.

By His mysterious ability, Kṛṣṇa expanded Himself into every missing boy and every single calf.

Number + draw one detail

After Brahmā, the creator of the universe, had hidden the cowherd boys and calves, he left thinking he had tested Kṛṣṇa's power.

Number + draw one detail

One bright morning, Brahmā returned.

Number + draw one detail

"Those who possess pure love for You are truly fortunate, O Lord," he prayed, bowing again.

Number + draw one detail

Realizing how tiny he was before the Lord of all, he descended from his graceful white swan and with trembling hands bowed all four of his heads to Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet.

Number + draw one detail

Before Brahmā's astonished gaze, each one turned into a four-armed Viṣṇu form.

Number + draw one detail

Family kindness mission

Prayers Offered by Lord Brahma to Lord Krishna | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of Prayers Offered by Lord Brahma to Lord Krishna.

Family mission

- Choose one humble, prayerful action from the story and do it today.

Today's kindness from the story

We will: _____

Because the story taught us: _____

☐

Done together