

Story sequence cards

Subduing Kaliya | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of Subduing Kaliya.

- Number the cards in story order.
- Draw one source-faithful detail on each card.

He simply allowed the serpent's coils to tighten, as if playing a secret game only He understood.

Number + draw one detail

The forest trembled as He spun and danced, His anklets jingling softly, even though He danced atop a terrible snake.

Number + draw one detail

Before anyone could stop them, some ran close to the bank, scooping handfuls of water to drink.

Number + draw one detail

"Everything will be all right." Then He stood up, His yellow dhotī shining, and He strode gracefully to the edge of the Yamunā, determined to help.

Number + draw one detail

All the cowherd boys and the people of Vṛndāvana rushed to the riverbank, crying out.

Number + draw one detail

Kṛṣṇa and His friends gathered together with His cows, ready for a new day of herding.

Number + draw one detail

Family kindness mission

Subduing Kaliya | 15 minutes

Story connection

Every printable piece comes from the central scene of Subduing Kaliya.

Family mission

- Choose one kind action from the story and do it today.

Today's kindness from the story

We will: _____

Because the story taught us: _____

☐

Done together

Talk about it:

- What was the most important choice?