

Compare rainy season and autumn

Description of Autumn | 15 minutes

Story connection

Krishna Book Ch.20 compares the end of the rainy season to autumn—clear lakes, blooming lotuses, and minds fixed on Krishna like rivers meeting the ocean.

Match each figure to why they came

- Match each source observation to its autumn meaning.

A. Muddy ponds become clear

Disturbances settle when we chant and remember

B. Lotuses bloom after rain

Devotees blossom in remembrance of the Lord

C. Waters grow calm

A peaceful mind becomes clear when fixed on Krishna

D. Cool breezes in Vṛndāvana

Krishna and Balarāma lead the cows in gentle autumn

Younger: draw lines or cut-and-match. Older: Match comparisons and write how autumn clarity reminds you of Krishna.

Draw one autumn sign of Krishna's shelter
