

Indra and Surabhi sequence

Prayers by Indra, the King of Heaven | 18 minutes

Story connection

Krishna Book Ch.27: After the rescue, Indra approaches privately, admits pride, hears Krishna's instruction; Surabhi; milk abhiṣeka; Govinda name; Indra returns with permission. Clouds already stopped in Ch.25.

- Number the seven cards in true Ch.27 order.
- Circle where Krishna receives the name Govinda.

Krishna instructs him: opulence is delegated; return to duty without false prestige.

Number + draw one detail

Krishna is honored with the name Govinda amid flower showers.

Number + draw one detail

Indra approaches Krishna privately in a secluded place and bows.

Number + draw one detail

With permission, Indra returns to his heavenly duty, free of pride.

Number + draw one detail

Surabhi the celestial cow arrives with prayers of devotion.

Number + draw one detail

Indra admits his pride and offense before the Lord.

Number + draw one detail

They bathe Krishna in a milk abhiṣeka, with celestial waters through Airāvata.

Number + draw one detail

Match humility lessons

Prayers by Indra, the King of Heaven | 18 minutes

Story connection

Krishna Book Ch.27: After the rescue, Indra approaches privately, admits pride, hears Krishna's instruction; Surabhi; milk abhiṣeka; Govinda name; Indra returns with permission. Clouds already stopped in Ch.25.

Match each figure to why they came

- Match each moment to what it teaches about pride and mercy.

A. Private approach and bow

B. Admission of pride

C. Krishna's instruction

D. Milk abhiṣeka and Govinda name

E. Return with permission

Honor the Lord who protects the cows

Mercy can remove false prestige

Honest confession opens the heart

True repentance seeks the Lord quietly

Resume duty without arrogance

Younger: Number the abhiṣeka cards; celebrate the name Govinda. Older: Order Indra's humility sequence and explain why Surabhi belongs here, not in the storm c